

Faridah Awang Scholars Program

Contact: Dr. Faridah Awang, CEO, admin@fascholars.org
<http://www.fascholars.org>

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Application Deadline February 1, 2021

ACCEPTING 2021 SCHOLARSHIPS APPLICATIONS The Faridah Awang Scholars Program Helps Students Pay for Education

RICHMOND, KENTUCKY, USA, October 6, 2020--The Faridah Awang Scholars Program (FAScholars) officially began accepting applications for the 2021 Marcia A. Anderson Merit Scholarship, Wook Ismail Merit Scholarship, Asiah Khamis Scholarship, and Hashim Jamani Scholarship through Monday, February 1, 2021.

Each scholarship has its specific eligibility criteria and purpose based on FAScholars Program's missions. Eligible high school, undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral students can apply for the scholarship at the organization website, fascholars.org

"In its second year, FAScholars Program aspires to make a huge impact on the world. Our scholarships are offered around the world regardless of creed, color, or culture," said Dr. Faridah Awang, CEO and Founder of the FAScholars Program.

Those chosen as scholarship finalists will be invited to online interviews with the FAScholars Program board members during May through July 2021. The scholarship winners will be notified in August 2021, with financial scholarship award disbursement in September 2021.

About FAScholars: Founded by Dr. Faridah Awang in 2019, the mission of the FAScholars is to facilitate access to education, especially in underserved communities on a global stage. Donations are accepted at any time to support the scholarship initiative. Donations are tax-deductible as the FASP is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization in the USA (Federal Tax I.D. 84-3088884) and may be made online at <http://www.fascholars.org/donate> or mailed to The Faridah Awang Scholars Program, 118 Castlewood Dr., Richmond, KY 40475, USA.

###